BEHAVIOURAL CODE

The behavioural expectations at APS are developed to support and foster a high level of social and communicative skills that promote self-confidence, empathy and tolerance. On-going reinforcement of these expectations is supported through regular classroom discussion.

CLASSROOM / SCHOOL YARD BEHAVIOUR

The process outlined here is one that begins AFTER good classroom / yard behaviour management and rules have failed to be followed by a child. Discussion with the teacher/principal and parents will take place when this process is needed.

Communication between teachers will occur to see that patterns of inappropriate behaviour are not occurring with parents will occur when inappropriate behaviour happens, to try to change that behaviour. Once in the process described below, parents will be informed as each step is reached giving detail of the behaviour leading to the consequence.

Removal from Class / Yard at either level means a 'Contract for Re-entry' needs to be completed and discussed with teacher/principal.

Class / Yard level
- to fill in and discuss a 'Contract for Re-entry' to the class/yard. Time out to be decided by Principal and Class Room Teacher

School level
- (usually equal to whole school day) to
  1) fill in and discuss a 'Contract for Re-entry'
  2) work separately from students on classroom subjects
  3) have a separate lunch/recess from others students

Take home Will follow any major incidents (eg violence or drug issues) so that the matter can be fully investigated. Suspension is a possible consequence of any violent incident.

This is an option for a student who is so upset or angry that he/she is not able or willing to comply with the staff requests or who chooses to become difficult or argumentative to the point of being unreasonable. A “Contract for Re-Entry” is required after any take home consequences.
A student may be fast tracked through this process at the discretion of teachers and principal depending on the frequency and severity of behaviours.

Ongoing and severely irresponsible behaviours may involve referral to regional support services.

The APS Behaviour Code will be clearly shared by all staff, student and parents, to ensure all are supported with the process.
